

The Hyposkthesis

That I might show devotion to divinity and cherish heaven,
that I might join reverence and knowledge together,
that I might learn the works of the Divine and workings of Nature, that I might discover and apply the skillful arts of everything that is good,
that I might do works of charity and justice for my society and the world,
that I might end ignorance, abandon error, and cease evil,
that I might go forth to the Life, Light, and Goodness of God:

I will maintain my honesty and integrity;

I will be respectful towards others;

I will support others as they need from me as I need from them;

I will keep the trust, faith, and secrecy of others;

I will communicate clearly with others;

I will focus on my work as it is set before me;

I will attend to the Work diligently and regularly.
